

Examples of Leadership Defined in Indiana Compensation Models

Below is a list of examples of leadership as defined in district compensation models. This list is not exhaustive and should only be used as a resource to schools and districts. This list can be used as a resource when applying for the $2 million Excellence in Performance Grant for Title I Focus and Priority Schools. Many of the examples below are subject to principal/superintendent pre-approval per compensation model requirements.

RTI Leadership Team Member
School Improvement Team Member
Department and/or Grade Level Chair
Mentor Beginning Teacher
Supervise a Student Teacher
Field Experience Supervisor for Educator Prep Program
Serving on Curriculum and/or Assessment Teams
Write and Receive Competitive Grants
Award from National/State Organizations
After School Enrichment Clubs
School Board Presentations
Evening, Weekend or Summer Workshops
Staff Development Presentations
National Board Certification
Professional Association Membership
High Ability Team Member

Building Level Data Team Member
Technology Team Member
Health/Wellness/Safety Team Member
Strategic Planning Team Member
Leading a Professional Learning Community
Revising or Writing Curriculum
PBIS Committee Member
North Central Accreditation Team Member
Teacher of the Year Recognition (local or state)
Data Collection and Analysis Committee Member
Professional Education Organization Leadership Role
Presenter at Local/State/National Education Conference
Sponsor of a non-paid Club or school program
Evaluation Committee Member
Title I & Title III Committee Member